When breast cancer is found early through mammography, your risk of dying from the disease is reduced by at least 25-30 percent. Learn what’s new in breast cancer prevention and detection during this informative panel discussion.

Thursday, Oct. 4 • 6:30 p.m.
Lehigh Valley Hospital–Cedar Crest
Kasych Family Pavilion
Medical Imaging of Lehigh Valley Educational Conference Center
Rooms 6, 7 and 8

Call 610-402-CARE (2273) to register.
PANEL PARTICIPANTS INCLUDE:

Priya Sareen, MD
Radiologist-Breast Imaging
Clearing Up Confusion About Mammograms
An update regarding appropriate screening guidelines in light of recent confusion. Also learn about the exciting emergence of 3D mammography.

Ann Marie Miller, MS
Certified Genetic Counselor
What’s in Your Genes?
Approximately 10 percent of cancers have an underlying hereditary cause. Find out about hereditary breast cancer syndromes and learn if genetic testing is right for you.

Kathleen Harris, MD
Medical Oncologist
Hormones and Menopause: The Facts and Myths
What are the benefits and risks of menopausal hormone therapy? Learn all about it and discuss how the timing, duration and administration affects your risks and benefits.

Lori Alfonse, DO
Breast Surgeon
‘I feel a lump in my breast. What should I do?’
We encourage women to perform breast self-exams (BSE). Learn about BSE, how to do it and what to do if you find a lump.

Lehigh Valley Health Network's Cancer Center partners with the National Cancer Institute to deliver superior quality and coordinated cancer care, bring the nation's newest treatments to our patients through clinical trials and decrease barriers to care in our community.