It is an ACGME Institutional Requirement that the Sponsoring Institution's GMEC develop and implement a formal written policy governing Institutional Agreements.

III. DEFINITIONS

CODA – Council on Dental Accreditation

AOA – American Osteopathic Association

GMEC – Graduate Medical Education Committee

Sponsoring Institution – The institution that assumes the ultimate responsibility for a program of GME

Participating Institution – The institution that provides some part of the resident's training outside of LVH.

IV. PROCEDURE

A. LVHN retains responsibility for the quality of GME even when resident education occurs in other institutions.

B. Current institutional agreements (i.e., master affiliation agreements and/or program letters of agreement) must exist between the sponsoring institution and all of its major and participating institutions, in accordance with ACGME, AOA, and CODA requirements.

C. LVHN must assure that each of its ACGME-, AOA-, or CODA accredited programs has established agreement (or memoranda of understanding) with its participating institutions in compliance with the specialty's program requirements. A copy of agreements covering recurrent rotations must be filed in the Division of Education’s Graduate Medical Education office, in the Department of Finance, and as appropriate be uploaded to the respective accrediting body’s information system.

The letter of agreement should:
