IMPORTANT CLASS UPDATE:

We understand that schedule changes can be frustrating, and we truly appreciate your interest in attending our group fitness classes. In an effort to responsibly manage operational costs while continuing to offer a wide variety of programming, we have implemented a policy to cancel classes two hours in advance if fewer than five participants are registered.

This approach helps us ensure we are using resources effectively while still maintaining a strong and sustainable group fitness schedule. We encourage members to register in advance whenever possible, as registrations directly impact whether a class will run.
